

Jesmond Grove

101 Mordue Parade, Jesmond, NSW

Jesmond Grove is an award-winning facility that provides quality nursing care in a modern environment. The home is located approximately 15 minutes from John Hunter Hospital, is close to public transport and within walking distance of the Jesmond's Stockland shopping centre.

Our varying designs and outlooks cater to 84 residents, allowing for the ideal balance of socialisation and independence.

Jesmond Grove has six wings, each with their own kitchenette, large lounge with gas fireplace and dining areas, as well as two smaller sitting rooms, providing the perfect setting for visiting family, enjoying the company of friends and group activities. There is also a multi-purpose room where many Lifestyle and Wellbeing programs are held, including movie afternoons, bingo, church services and other group activities.

Outdoors, our residents enjoy expansive park areas, water features, walking paths, gazebos, BBQ areas, al fresco dining areas and vegetable gardens.
