

McIntosh Court

87 Toronto Road, Booragul NSW

McIntosh Court is within the Cockle Bay Anglican Community, adjacent to the beautiful Lake Macquarie. The home is conveniently located approximately 15 minutes from both Toronto Private and John Hunter Hospitals, and prides itself on the provision of quality dementia specific care.

McIntosh Court has six wings and 63 single rooms, designed around a lovely central courtyard area. Each wing enjoys access to a sitting room, kitchen and dining area, as well as an array of shared areas, providing the perfect setting for visitors and group activities.

Our enthusiastic lifestyle and wellbeing team are here to provide a variety of activities centred around your individual interests, including movie afternoons, social gatherings, music and crafts, to special events and outings.

For those who enjoy the outdoors, we have everything from a central courtyard with beautiful gardens, a water feature and outdoor furniture to al fresco dining areas and a beautiful pergola. We also have BBQ areas, raised garden beds, and vegetable gardens for our local green thumbs.
